“An Earth-Shattering Event”

Dear Friends in Christ,

An “earth-shattering event” refers to a natural disaster that devastates and changes the environment we live in. Think: floods washing away towns, volcanoes erupting and covering cities, or earthquakes that split the earth open and level structures. Those physical changes often cause even larger changes in societies due to loss of life, jobs, or infrastructure. St. Matthew records an earthshattering event after Jesus death on the cross.

And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. And the earth shook, and the rocks were split. The tombs also were opened. And many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many. When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe and said, “Truly this was the Son of God!” (27:51-54)

The world has never been the same since the death of Jesus. The seismic event that occurred at Jesus’ death was earth-shattering physically, but the physical and spiritual aftershocks were even more earth-shattering. When Jesus died, death and sin was defeated by Him and believers in God were physically raised from the dead. When Jesus rose from the dead on Easter Sunday, those raised saints entered the holy city of Jerusalem and were seen alive. What a sight that must have been!

What happened then will happen to us when Jesus returns in glory on the Last Day. The ground will shake and split, all graves will be opened, and all the dead will be raised to life. Those who have believed in Jesus in this life will be reunited with their souls to live bodily with God forever in the New Heavens and the New Earth. But those who did not believe will suffer physically in hell forever.

Most people in the world continue to lead lives as if none of this has happened or will happen. Christians are different. Even though the world seems to go on as “normal” – as if Jesus has not died and risen from the dead – we live with in earth-shattering reality. Jesus has died and risen. Our sins are forgiven. We will rise from the dead and live forever. We will come out from our tombs and enter the holy city of the New Jerusalem when it comes down out of heaven because Jesus truly is the Son of God.

In Christ,
Pastor Bertram

A Better Way

The most common question about stewardship is not whether a Christian should give to their church. Of course Christians should give to their church. Everyone knows this. Rather, the question asked most is, “How much should I give?” But this question really means, “Should Christians give a tenth of their income to their local congregation?”

Here are some common reasons against tithing. Some say tithing isn’t necessary because it isn’t expressly commanded in the New Testament. There is no “Thus saith the Lord,” or “should” concerning tithing. Others say that Christians give to their congregation in ways much broader than money. They give of their time and their talents, and these together with treasures (money) add up to more than a tithe. Still others say that they give of their treasures to other things besides their congregation, and they want to support those things alongside their church. And then there are those who think Christians shouldn’t tithe because of some fear. They are afraid that if they tithe, their gift will be misused, or that after tithing, there won’t be enough left over to get the things that they use, want or need.

Here are some reasons why Christians should tithe. Even though the New Testament doesn’t specifically command Christians to tithe, the Old Testament people were commanded to. And on top of this, St. Paul often describes giving a regular and generous proportion of the first fruits of one’s income — terms similar to a tithe (2 Cor. 8:7–23; 2 Cor. 9:2–7).

But here’s another way to think about it. What was the point of the tithe in the Old Testament? Where did it go? This tithe was intended to support the ministry of the Levites. They were not given any land because they had no time to farm; their full-time job was the ministry. What does it say in the New Testament? “The Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel” (1 Cor. 9:14). This is the verse that Luther used in the Small Catechism’s Table of Duties to explain what Christians owe to the support of the ministry.

It seems clear from both the Old and the New Testaments that the tithe is the goal of Christians in their giving. But what if we’re not there yet? How should we handle this? What are we to do?

Let’s answer this by asking a different question. What would you say to your adult children who only attended church quarterly or once a month? After all, there is no passage in the New Testament that requires Christians to go to church weekly. Hebrews 10:25 is the closest verse we have, and it states simply that Christians should not neglect gathering together. And even though there is no passage that commands Christians to gather weekly, that is the implicit expectation throughout the Old and New Testaments.

So, what would you say to that son or daughter? The conversation might go something like this. “I’m glad you’re still going to church. It is a wonderful blessing to hear God’s promises of forgiveness, life and salvation, and to receive His gifts in Word and Sacrament. But you can do better, and it will only be a blessing to you. There is a better way, and I’d really like you to try to attain it.”

We should approach the topic of tithing with a similar conversation. The tithe is not specifically commanded in the New Testament, but it sure seems like the implicit expectation of both the Old and New Testaments. So, we’re ecstatic that you’re giving, and that you’re giving in all these various ways — time, talents and treasures. But there is a better way. And that will only be a blessing to you, just as the Word of God — Old and New Testament alike — promises. Can you try increasing your gifts over the coming weeks, months and years? Can you put your trust in the God who sent His Son to take away your sin and give you everlasting life? And if He did this for you, if He did not spare His only Son, how will He not give you all things? He will not disappoint.
