“We Are All Beggars”

Dear Friends in Christ,

February is not my favorite month. In Minnesota, February’s mostly cloudy and gloomy days are endured because the chill of winter is starting to fade and there is hope for the start of springtime in March.

On December 17, 1545, Martin Luther completed his lectures on Genesis that had started more than ten years before in 1535. Before he began them, he made a comment that was prophetic. “I shall linger over the exposition of this book and shall die in the process of doing so.” On the last day of his lectures, commenting on the death and burial of Joseph in chapter 50, he closed by saying to his class, “This is now the dear Genesis. God grant that after me others will do better. I can do no more. I am weak. Pray God for me that He may grant me a good and blessed last hour” (AE 8, pg. x, 333). Thirty-one days later, February 18, Luther died in the town of his birth, Eisleben, helping to resolve a family squabble between Saxon princes.

After spending a couple days secluded in a guest room, his end came quickly. When his strength started to fail, Luther kept repeating John 3:16 himself, “For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son...” His heart gave out around 3:00 AM that morning. Going through his pockets they found a scrap of paper with his handwritten notes, which ended, “Hoc est verum [Latin]. Wir sind alle Bettler [German].” (English: “This is true. We are all beggars.”)

Luther had practiced what he taught in his Small Catechism on the 7th Petition, “But deliver us from evil... We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed in, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrows (vale of tears) to Himself in heaven.”

“We are all beggars.” We are reminded of blind Bartimaeus begging on the road from Jericho to Jerusalem, who, when he heard Jesus was passing by on the way to celebrate the Passover with many other Jewish pilgrims, cried out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” (Mk 10:47). Jesus healed him, and Bartimaeus followed Jesus. Was he there a week later at Golgotha to see with his newly restored sight Jesus die on the cross Scripture does not tell us.

“We are all beggars.” Beggars have nothing and need everything. Beggars like us can boast of nothing in ourselves, but we can boast in Christ. “Far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Gal. 6:14). Beggars at the cross of Jesus are saved. Our boast is that He died for our sins and was raised for our justification. Confessing that “we are all beggars” is not something hopeless, but full of hope in Jesus, who saved us.

As February begins and we begin to hope for the coming of spring, like the beggar Bartimaeus, Jesus passes by to save us. Like, Bartimaeus, we can walk with Jesus through the winter of Lent to the spring of Easter.

In Christ,
Pastor Bertram

If the weather is questionable, or if for some other reason you are wondering whether church services will be held or not, please check our website's Home page at www.splfairmont.org or call the CHURCH OFFICE (507-238-9491) before leaving home and listen to the entire first message on the answering machine (do not press "4").

If services are cancelled, an announcement will be made in place of the standard message WHENEVER POSSIBLE. If you do not hear a message cancelling services, then they will go on as scheduled.

LWML St. Paul Lutheran invites you to attend the 2025 LWML Prayer Service either in-person or watch via video streaming on the church's website.

Thursday, February 6th @ 1:30 p.m.

The Service will be led by Pastor Anthony Bertram and assisted by one of our LWML Representatives.

The 2025 Prayer Service is based on the Beatitudes, found in Matthew 5:1–12.

The Beatitudes are some of the most beloved words of Jesus. In them, Jesus highlights people in various situations of life, situations that are not always easy to endure — or even envision — as a child of God. Yet, our Lord calls the people in each condition “blessed” and assures each of them of their place in the kingdom of heaven. As you hear the precious Beatitudes from our Lord and pray for people in the various stages of life, may you indeed be blessed and encouraged in your life of faith. May your mind be drawn to the work of Christ, His life, and His death and resurrection which bless you each day until He brings you home to the kingdom of heaven forever.

Stewardship Board

“Christ’s Life, and Love, and Light”

Open our eyes Lord to see Your love’s intent,
To know with minds and hearts its depth and height
May thankfulness be days in service spent
Reflection of Christ’s life, and love, and light. (LSB 788)

As stewards enter the month of February, it is fitting that we look at the last stanza of the stewardship hymn, “Forgive Us, Lord, for Shallow Thankfulness” (LSB 788). It is in these words that we see that the heart of stewardship is indeed love. Love has flowed from our Lord to us in the person and work of Jesus Christ. This love is then to flow from us to others. Being a conduit of love is really the central task of what it means to be a steward. The Lord entrusts us with His love that reconciles us to Himself, so that we might be stewards of the Gospel reconciliation that is freely given through us to those around us.

If we don’t see this love from God to us, then through us, to others, our eyes will be closed not just to the needs of those around us. They will also be closed to the very heart of the Gospel itself. This is why the hymnist prays that the Lord would “Open our eyes, Lord, to see Your love’s intent, To know with minds and hearts its depth and height.”

Only when we are immersed in God’s Holy Word, washed in Holy Baptism’s life-giving water and fed on the holy, precious, body and blood of Jesus in the Holy Supper, will the Spirit be able to open our eyes to see the Lord’s loving intent for us, and those we know and love. Sin blinds us. It makes us think that we are the center of our world, and our pleasure is the key.

In the Word, the Lord shows us the depth and height of His love. The depth of that love is what moved Him from His throne in heaven into our world. There He would don our human flesh, walk the dusty roads of Palestine, and set His face toward Jerusalem. Once there we get to see the height of His love, as He is elevated on a Roman cross to die a death that we deserve. But that would not be the end. He would be lowered into a tomb for three days. On that third day we then see the heights of love ascended to in His resurrection. This resurrection is already ours too!

The depth and height of this love poured out on us by the Holy Spirit then is distributed through us to others. Christ’s servant love is shown in our servant love. The hymn utters the prayer of every Christian steward:

May thankfulness be days in service spent
Reflection of Christ’s life, and love, and light.

This is the task for which stewards were originally created. Bearing the image of creation and redemption, we reflect Christ’s love to those around us. The light of Christ shining through us to others is the true stewardship to which we are called. It takes place in our homes. It is lived out in our workplaces and classrooms. As we bear the life, love and light received in Word and Sacrament, we carry it out in service to our neighbor and for the glory of God!

Forgive us, Lord, when our stewardship of thankfulness is shallow or lacking! Fill us with Your life, love and light! Not just for us, but through us to those we know and love, that they may know Your life, love and light for them!

School Fundraisers

COCA-COLA GIVE PROGRAM — This fundraiser opens up new funding opportunities to help the learning environment for our students. The best part? Donations don't come out of your own pocket. When you make Coca-Cola purchases, you simply enter the product codes here: <https://us.coca-cola.com/give/schools/> and then search by zip code, and scan or enter product codes from participating Coca-Cola products. Each product code scanned or entered on their website has a unique donation value. To learn more, go to <https://us.coca-cola.com/give/>. Thank you!

RAISERIGHT FUNDRAISING: Raise money for St. Paul Lutheran School (or a specific family in our school) just by purchasing gas, groceries, and other items with these gift cards. You receive the full value of what you paid plus you earn an immediate rebate percentage of what you spent — typically between 3-15%, depending on the retailer. Use the proceeds to supplement the school budget, or families can receive credit toward tuition and other school expenses. Go to RaiseRight.com and use our enrollment code 24271B1C5147L to get started. Questions? Contact Joan Abel, jabel@splfairmont.org or 507-236-9521.

HY-VEE & FAREWAY RECEIPTS: Save your Fairmont Hy-Vee and Fareway receipts — turn in to the collection bins located in the upstairs school corridor and church basement. For each $200,000 in receipts collected from their store, they donate $1,000 to St. Paul Lutheran School. Receipts must be from Fairmont stores only; remember to thank the stores for this program when you shop!

SUBWAY CARDS: If you purchase Subway cards, 2% of your purchase can go to SPLS. If you already have a card or when you purchase one, add our school's code (3TQF) to your card at www.subway.com or call 1-800-564-1343. Subway cards can be purchased at any Subway and are redeemed at full purchase price when you eat at Subway.

OTHER PROGRAMS: Scan Box Tops for Education receipts; save Tyson "Project A+" labels; and Pizza Ranch "wagon" symbols. We also collect used, workable cell phones.

WE ALSO APPRECIATE YOUR SUPPORT of our other school fundraisers, such as the Tour of Tables/Cakewalk and Basket Fundraiser.

THE SCHOOL ALSO collects aluminum pop tabs to help support the Ronald McDonald House in the Twin Cities. Families receiving care at any Twin Cities area hospital are eligible to stay there, provided their children are being treated for cancer or have other life-threatening illnesses and the family resides 45 miles or greater from the Twin Cities. Yearly, more than 600 families stay there.
